CIVIL ACTION NO. C-02-312

JURY DEMANDED

SIKORSKY AIRCRAFT CORPORATION'S ORIGINAL ANSWER

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE JANIS GRAHAM JACK:

COMES NOW Sikorsky Aircraft Corporation, Defendant herein (hereinafter "Sikorsky"), and files this Original Answer to Plaintiffs' (State Court) Original Petition, and in support thereof would respectfully show as follows:

Without waiving other defenses asserted and to be asserted herein, Sikorsky answers the specifically numbered paragraphs in Plaintiffs' Original Petition as follows:

DISCOVERY LEVEL

1. This paragraph concerning State Court discovery does not require an answer.

JURISDICTION AND VENUE

2. This paragraph concerns jurisdiction and venue in State Court and is denied.

PARTIES

Plaintiffs

3. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 3 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

4. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 4 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

5. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 5 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

6. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 6 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

7. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 7 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

8. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 8 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

9. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 9 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

10. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 10 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

11. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 11 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

12. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 12 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

Defendants

13. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 13 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

14. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 14 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

15. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 15 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

16. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 16 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

17. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in paragraph 17 of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

18. Sikorsky admits it is a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Delaware with its home office and principal place of business in Stratford, Connecticut. Sikorsky denies that it is engaged in doing business in the State of Texas. Sikorsky has agreed to accept service of process so that the factual allegations regarding service of process are not relevant.

FACTS RELEVANT TO ALL COUNTS

19. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in the nineteenth paragraph of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

20. Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments in the twentieth paragraph of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

21. Sikorsky admits that it originally manufactured the helicopter in question and delivered the same to the United States Navy. Sikorsky denies that it manufactured the swashplate duplex bearing or introduced the swashplate duplex bearing into the stream of commerce.

22. Sikorsky admits that Kaydon Corporation manufactured bearings for the MH-53E swashplate, that the bearing in question was designated as an 043 bearing. With regard to the other allegations in the twenty-second paragraph of Plaintiffs' Original Petition, Sikorsky is without knowledge or information sufficient to form a belief as to the averments and therefore denies same.

23. Sikorsky admits to the allegations in the twenty-third paragraph of Plaintiffs' Original Petition.

24. Sikorsky denies that it manufactured or installed the bearing in question, and denies that it created and/or caused any manufacturing defects, deficiencies or inadequacies in the MH-53E Sea Dragon helicopter. Sikorsky understands that the bearing was manufactured by Kaydon Corporation and delivered from Kaydon Corporation to the United States Navy, and that the United States Navy installed the bearing.

PRODUCT LIABILITY

25. Sikorsky adopts and incorporates herein for all purposes its responses to paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

26. The MH-53E Sea Dragon helicopter was originally manufactured by Sikorsky pursuant to reasonably precise design specifications owned by the United States Government. The swashplate bearing in question was manufactured by Kaydon Corporation, the Armoloy Corporation, Armoloy of Illinois, Inc., Armoloy of Connecticut, Inc., and/or Investment Holdings Inc. Sikorsky denies that it created and/or caused any manufacturing defects, deficiencies or inadequacies in the MH-53E Sea Dragon helicopter. Sikorsky denies that it assembled the swashplate bearing into the helicopter and denies that it is strictly liable under §402(a) of the restatement (2nd) of Torts. Sikorsky is without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of the other allegations contained in paragraph twenty-six of Plaintiffs' Original Petition and therefore denies same.

NEGLIGENCE

27. Sikorsky adopts and incorporates herein for all purposes its responses to paragraphs 1 through 24, inclusive.

28. Sikorsky denies that it was negligent and further denies that it directly and proximately caused of the deaths and injuries in question. With regard to the allegations contained in paragraph twenty-eight of Plaintiffs' Original Petition relating to the conduct of other Defendants, Sikorsky says that it is without sufficient knowledge or information to form a belief as to the truth of those allegations and therefore denies same.

JURY DEMAND

65. Sikorsky demands a trial by jury.

FIRST AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

66. Sikorsky is a supplier of military equipment and is not liable to the Plaintiffs because (1) The United States is immune from liability; (2) Sikorsky, as a government contractor, was required by the United States government to manufacture the helicopter in question to reasonably precise specifications, which were established and approved by the United States government; (3)

The helicopter conformed to those specifications; and (4) Sikorsky warned the United States about patent errors, if any, in the government specifications and about dangers, if any, involved in the use of the helicopter that were known to Sikorsky but not the United States.

SECOND AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

67. Sikorsky is immune to suit or liability pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950, 50 U.S.C. § 2061 et. seq.

THIRD AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

68. The accident made the basis of this suit was caused in whole or in part by the acts, omissions, or products of others over whom this defendant has no control or right of control.

FOURTH AFFIRMATIVE DEFENSE

69. Sikorsky reserves the right to submit issues to obtain an allocation of fault as to any settling person or responsible Third-Party, and/or obtain a credit with regard to any settlement, if appropriate.

WHEREFORE, PREMISES CONSIDERED, Sikorsky prays that Plaintiffs take nothing by reason of the claims and allegations contained Plaintiffs' Original Petition, and that Sikorsky be granted such other and further relief as the Court may deem appropriate.

Respectfully submitted,
